

Prep guide – Dipole radiation

Big picture goal – The radiation made by oscillating dipoles is a particularly relevant special case, which we'll build up here.

1) It's possible to get both the electric and magnetic dipole radiation fields from the asymptotic vector potential, without ever referencing the scalar potential. How?

2) Radiating dipoles make certain kinds of waves that we've seen before. What kind of waves?